Re: United States v. Alexei Saab, 19 cr. 676 (PGG)

Dear Judge Gardephe:

I represent Alexei Saab in the above-referenced matter. This Court set a trial date of January 10, 2022. The Defense requests an adjournment of the trial.<sup>1</sup>

This Court set December 13, 2021, for motions in limine. It will be difficult, if not impossible, for the Defense to file motions in limine with so many issues outstanding. The Defense will be at a significant disadvantage in devising a reasonable trial strategy for a January 10, 2022, trial. The Defense reiterates the same arguments made in its November 8th letter and adds two (2) additional factors. First, this Court still has not ruled on the pending pretrial motions. Second, the Defense asked for an opportunity to fully brief any and all Section 4 CIPA issues at a prior conference, and this Court granted the Defense request.<sup>2</sup> The Defense argues that the CIPA briefing schedule would run afoul of the current trial briefing schedule. The Government opposes this request.

Please contact me if you have any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

<sup>1</sup> This Court denied the prior Defense request to adjourn the trial.
